The current four-way contest at the top of the table is one of the strongest arguments for fans to experience MotoGP up close and personal. The title fight between Jorge Martín, Francesco Bagnaia, Enea Bastianini and Marc Márquez is delivering a climax to the 2024 world championship that would be hard to beat in terms of excitement. So today's announcement that the FIM and Dorna have finalised the calendar for the 2025 Motorcycle World Championship comes at just the right time. And local fans will be delighted to learn that Austria is once again to host a Grand Prix weekend (15th - 17th August 2025). As always, it will be an extravaganza of racing with a high-calibre programme of entertainment away from the track at Spielberg. Summer mood, open-air events and motorsport aplenty. Every August since 2016, the stars of MotoGP have been descending on the Mur valley in the heart of Austria. Today (Thursday), the 2025 dates for Spielberg have been officially confirmed, and two-wheeler fans can start planning their next trip to the Steiermark region on the weekend of 15th to 17th August. The 150,000+ spectators who came through the gates of the Red Bull Ring this year to cheer on the fastest riders in the world will testify that the best entertainment on the MotoGP itinerary – side events, concerts, autograph sessions, stunt shows and air displays – can only be found at Spielberg. As in 2024, spectators will be treated to double racing action, with the Sprint on Saturday and the Grand Prix on Sunday. There was a great atmosphere this year at the premiere of the "Austrian MopedGP" and at the Sprint victory ceremony, with trophies being presented for the first time in front of the fans gathered in MotoGP Bike City. Inspired by the success of this year's event, the staff at the Red Bull Ring are already making preparations to ensure that visitors enjoy more unforgettable days of motorsport in August 2025.
